

Bridlington & District Civic Society

Bulletin No. 9 September 2026

Dates for your Diary

Tuesday September 8th, 7.45 PM, North Bridlington Library

Speaker – Katie Atkinson

Topic – Current Options for Power in an Environmental and Energy Crisis

It is important to emphasise the new starting time for this meeting and please do not arrive too early as the previous occupants of the room might still be departing. Subscriptions due - £15.00 annual, £2.00 visitors.

Saturday September 19th, 10.00AM to 4.00 PM, Priory Church Rooms

This is part of Heritage Open Day 2026 – the topic is Everyday Histories exploring the everyday lives of ordinary individuals and their contributions to society.

Monday September 21st, 1.30 PM, Chalk Tower, Flamborough

This is the next ‘Civil’ outing. Cost – free, but donations gratefully received. Wendy will probably be reminding you about this outing, but, if you need more information, she can be contacted on 07790 223952.

The brevity of this Bulletin is an indication of how short we are of Executive Committee members. Can you help by volunteering or nominating a candidate??

The opinions expressed in this Bulletin are not necessarily those of the Committee or members.
